What's New

Erosion of Truth

by Dave Morris

We're all familiar with the common phrases used to defend our right to keep and bear arms, like, "I carry a gun because a cop is too heavy", or "I'd rather be judged by twelve than carried by six." What we may not be familiar with is the cultural assault being perpetrated by the movies, TV and news. There isn't a ghost behind every door, but there are tons of subtle suggestions and insidious attacks on our freedom by modern culture. If you don't believe me, observe how many times you see happy 4th of July instead of Happy Independence Day. Everyone has a July 4th, but we have Independence Day.

Anti-gunners run in circles with those who hate freedom. (Hate is not too strong a word in this case.) They are part of the culture that denigrates America and its values of freedom. They hang out with the Hollywood and New York crowds that so often belittle guns in public, but in private use firearms to protect them. Take Rosie O'Donnell for instance, she won't carry a gun but admits her body guard needs one to protect her kids on the way to school.[1] O'Donnell claims Warner Brothers arranged this, and the security company required it, but that is a difference without a distinction. She is allowing someone else to carry a firearm in defense of her and her loved ones. How about Sean Penn carrying a shotgun in New Orleans after Katrina, this in the same city where law abiding citizens had their guns confiscated by government authorities when they had done nothing wrong.[2] If it were up to the liberal elites gun control would apply only to the people "they" deemed unsafe.

OHIO

Despite the weather, which saw heavy cloud cover and rain eventually turn to periods of sunshine, over 150 people turned out on July 11 to attend the Ohioans For Concealed Carry annual Party in the Park and a great time was had by all. After a filling lunch with Second Amendment supporters from around Ohio featuring burgers, hot dogs, sausages, BBQ chicken, Italian marinated chicken and more capped with birthday cake, the crowd turned their attention to the guest speakers highlighted by Second Amendment March Coordinator Skip Coryell (pictured). Several hundred dollars were raised for the March, and this event officially kicked off the Ohio SAM campaign!

The full review of the event may be read on the OFCC website: http://tinyurl.com/mgqjq4

South Carolina Fundraiser This Weekend

The mission of the Second Amendment March is to galvanize the courage and resolve of Americans; to petition our elected officials against establishing anti-gun legislation; and to remind America that the Second Amendment is necessary to maintain our right to self defense.
It is the one right that protects all others.
We will accomplish our mission by a centralized, peaceful march in Washington DC, the United States Capitol, supported by satellite marches to State Capitols and other cities all across America.

Second Amendment Website Updates

You may have noticed some slight changes on the Second Amendment March website. We changed the navigation a bit to incorporate some new features, including the addition of our event calendar and a new feature to look up your state coordinator (under Contact > State Coordinators). In the future we will enhance this even further by adding state-specific information.

Second Amendment March on Twitter

Second Amendment March is now on Twitter! Twitter is a free service that allows people to stay connected via short messages, called "tweets". Second Amendment March is utilizing this tool to provide updates and news to our supporters.

You can follow us at: http://twitter.com/2AMarch

Second Amendment March Store

Did you know that we offer Second Amendment March merchandise such as t-shirts, hats, pins, bumper stickers and more at http://store.secondamendmentmarch.com?

When you purchase items from the store, you can be assured that 100% of the money earned by Second Amendment March goes directly to supporting our second amendment rights. The organizers of Second Amendment March are not taking any personal income from these sales -- it's strictly a fundraising effort.
