The following is taken from an urgent email just issued by the Illinois State Rifle Association. This is a TRIAL BALLOON people. Don't forget where Obama came from....Chicago. If you care at all about freedom then you recognize that an on air debate about abolishing the 2nd Amendment is the shot across the bow. Read and respond:

you subscribe.

It is important that you call the radio station and continue to call until you get through to speak. The more pro-gun callers we get, the better. Don't let the anti gunners use this forum as a vehicle for trampling on our Constitution!

Let's do what we can to generate a nation-wide response to this latest attack on our rights!

innocent lives through tyranny, slavery, corruption and sinful abuse of power. Therefore, we became ripe for such abuses shortly after the Vietnam embarrassment. Though rugged individualism and a glowing entrepreneurial spirit is alive and well in this great land, the parasites amongst us have gained so much ground that liberal democrats offering policies benefiting bloodsuckers have created a glut of bloodsuckers. We are about to hit a deadend brickwall, but everybody I know will never, ever give up being the best that we can be to turn this great nation back onto the True North course of the US Constitution, Bill of Rights, Ten Commandments and Golden Rule. It is time for absolute activism by all who care.

As you are aware, guns and ammunition have been flying off of the shelves since roughly October of last year as the election approached. It is said that the civilian population is arming itself at a historical rate. Being that history has a tendency to repeat itself, is another armed conflict possible in this country as the radical left, a rabidly liberal congress, and an Obama administration attempt to chip away at our God-given right to keep and bear arms and defend ourselves?

TN: Such drastic damage control is always a possibility, but I believe that it will never get to that because so many Americans are just too smart and clever to allow such self destruction to take place when it is so unnecessary. I believe we will fall further into the grips of denial and excuse making, but will eventually wake up and once again return to an America dedicated to rewarding excellence and punishing slovenly, gluttonous self loathing.

I'm sure the readers would love to know what your favorite carry gun is... care to let us know?

TN: Surely Rule #1 is to always have a gun, preferably 2 on us at all times. I love all my guns but have come to rely on my Glock Model 20 in caliber 10mm, along with the Glock Model 29 in the same caliber. But choice of gun is far less important than dedication to training and practice.

Ted, I'm a huge fan and have been to several of your concerts over the years. In fact, I was at your concert in the NJ Meadowlands seated on the field near the 50 yard line in, I believe, 1977 when you shared the ticket with Frank Marino and Mahogany Rush, Journey and Aerosmith. I was also seated up in the rafters during your infamous New Haven CT show a few years later that erupted into a fireworks and bottle throwing ruckus outside the New Haven Coliseum. My mom and dad, who gave us ride home from the show that night, were great sports as we all huddled underneath an awning across the street until the police got control of the situation. My father Don blamed the incident back then on your "Crazy, Loud Rock n Roll" and thought you were a lunatic. He has since become a huge fan of yours as a conservative and second amendment activist. Would you be kind enough to tell my father after all these years that it's just Rock n Roll and it's meant to be cranked up?

TN: Your father was smart to be suspicious of such an outrageous, passionate maniac like me. And of course, over time, he came to realize the fact that with the same energy and absolutism that I put into my music and defiant activism, I have always stood up loud and proud in defiance of the goofball hippie rock-n-roll failures so prevalent in my music industry. I have a feeling your dad and I are American BloodBrothers. I just happen to create the properly intense soundtrack for us.
