What's New

Not without a fight

Director Max Lemus has finished his documentary, "Not without a fight." Lemus wrote on his website:

This project grew out of my frustration with anchor men and women (media as a whole) who I think portray pro-gun rights people in an unfair and mostly negative light without truly giving the person interviewed an opportunity to explain the human side of gun rights. It seemed to me that the media would select a radical to interview and let the person represent all gun rights supporters, or they would cast stones at a clean cut and articulate gun rights supporters. Unfortunately the gun rights debate is sparingly presented in a logical manner.

I am shooting the documentary so that it will accomplish two things:

- 1. Dispel inaccuracies and introduce gun rights supporters as the regular folk that I know them to be.*
- 2. As people share their personal journeys, I hope that they become like a blue print for others who want to get involved but don't know how or where to start. Not just for gun rights but for all issues that affect the nation.*

Included in this documentary is Second Amendment March founder Skip Coryell.

Did You Know?

It takes a substantial amount of money to organize an event like Second Amendment March. Our fundraising advisors have set specific milestones that we need to meet in order to make the march happen. Right now we are VERY short of that goal and need your help! If you can help, please click on the Contribute Now button above to donate via our secured donation page. Thank you!

Second Amendment March would like to thank Mike Piccione of Eagle Publishing.

Mike publishes the Guns & Patriots newsletter, a patriotic publication hosted at humanevents.com.

In an effort to help publicize the March, he ran a trivia question in a recent edition and the answer was "Second Amendment March."

Mike says he will continue to help promote our efforts and we are very grateful!

Virginia State Coordinator Needed

Virginia State Coordinator position will become vacant at the end of the year.

Current VA Coordinator Leyla Myers needs someone in Virginia to step in and take over her responsibilities as the state coordinator, as she will step down from this position at the end of this year.

She will provide you the information you would need to start working on the final phase of the event.

If you feel strong about the 2A as an individual right, and want to help us make the Virginia State March a success, please contact the Board at info@secondamendmentmarch.com.

New Website Just Launched!

The revised Second Amendment March website recently launch!

The new website provides some new features such as state-specific pages, an RSVP form, charter bus information/contacts, and a host of other tools to help make your site visits more productive. So if you haven't seen it already, click here now!

Our current website is now receiving between 35,000 and 50,000 visitors per week. Thanks for helping us to spread the word!

State Coordinators

Our Mission

The mission of the Second Amendment March is to galvanize the courage and resolve of Americans; to petition our elected officials against establishing anti-gun legislation; and to remind America that the Second Amendment is necessary to maintain our right to self defense.

It is the one right that protects all others.

We will accomplish our mission by a centralized, peaceful march in Washington DC, the United States Capitol, supported by satellite marches to State Capitols and other cities all across America.

The County Sheriff: America's Last Hope

Sheriff Mack's newest book covers decades of research to prove once and for all that the sheriffs in this country are indeed the ultimate law authority in their respective jurisdictions. The sheriff absolutely has the power and responsibility to defend his citizens against all enemies, including those from our own Federal Government. History, case law, common law and common sense all show clear evidence that the sheriff is the people's protector in all issues of injustice and is responsible for keeping the peace in all matters. He is the last line of defense for his constituents; he is America's last hope to regain our forgotten freedom. This short but powerful book is a must read for all citizens, sheriffs, and government officials that we may all work to return America to the constitutional republic she was meant to be. Amazing as it might be, the sheriff can make this happen!

True stories of men and women who defended themselves and their families!

Written by Kathy Jackson and Mark Walters

Don't rely on others to protect yourself and your loved ones. "Lessons from Armed America" is the essential primer for self defense. Kathy and Mark are the experts that answer all your questions on stalking, real-life firefights, prevention and awareness, as well as carjacking and use of nonlethal force. They tell it like it is with candor and compassion, speaking through both experience and well-thought-out-research. If you're serious about protecting your family, this is the one book you MUST read!
